

Tactical Professor

Autoloading Pistol Evaluation Checklist

Load the pistol.
Load a magazine to full capacity.
Load the fully charged magazine into the pistol and chamber a round.
Manipulate the controls of the pistol.
If the pistol has a decocker, decock the pistol after loading it.
If the pistol has a safety, engage it, and then disengage it.
Remove the loaded magazine from the pistol.
Engage the slide stop while safely ejecting the round from the chamber. The muzzle must remain pointed downrange during the unload sequence.
Inspect the chamber visually and physically (with a finger) to be sure it is unloaded.
Let the slide go forward.
Shoot the pistol. The magazine should be loaded with six rounds only. If the pistol has a decocker, decock the pistol after each String of Fire and then disengage the decocker. If the pistol has a safety, start each string with the safety engaged. Fire six shots at each of four distances (Stages); 3 yards, 5 yards, 7 yards, and 10 yards.
Three Yards. Should be fired with the Primary Hand Only, i.e., One Handed
Fire One shot
Fire Two shots
Fire Three shots
Record your hits and then cover them with masking tape. Score at Three Yards
Five yards. Start with the chamber empty and a six round magazine inserted. Attempt to fire the first shot on an empty chamber. After the click, tap the base of the magazine, cycle the slide, and then fire one shot
Stoppage Clearance
Fire One shot
Fire Two shots
Fire Three shots
Record your hits and then cover them with masking tape. Score at Five Yards

Autoloading Pistol Evaluation Checklist (p2)

Seven yards. Start with the slide locked open and a six round magazine in the pistol. Eject the magazine onto the table, pick it up, insert it into the pistol, release the slide, and then fire three shots.
Emergency Reload
Fire Three shots
Fire One shot
Fire Two shots
Record your hits and then cover them with masking tape. Score at Seven Yards
Ten yards. Start with the chamber empty and a six round magazine inserted. Attempt to fire the first shot on an empty chamber. After the click, remove the magazine, cycle the slide three times, re-insert the magazine, and then fire three shots.
Stoppage Clearance
Fire Three shots
Fire One shot
Fire Two shots
Record your hits and then cover them with masking tape. Score at Ten Yards
Total Score

Tactical Professor Shooting Practice eBooks

Indoor Range Practice Sessions

<http://indoorangepracticesessions.com>

Concealed Carry Skills and Drills

<http://concealedcarryskillsanddrills.com>

Shooting Your Black Rifle

<http://shootingyourblackrifle.com>

